website design

We create a wide variety of web sites and applications for a wide range of clients. Don't take our word for it. View some examples of different web sites we have created on our website: www.onefunction.co.uk. Below is a brief overview of the five types of website design and development packages we offer.

Standard website

Typically 4 or 5 pages, with basic information about the company and services. Includes an email form for customer enquiries.

featured website:
www.weather-protection.co.uk

Large website

Larger websites for where the company requires more information to be included in a site. Often these websites require a sophisticated navigation structure to be developed for easy customer use.

featured website: www.aberglasney.org

Content Managed

Websites of varying sizes, which require some sections/pages to be updated. These sites enable an administrator to 'log in' to a secure part of the site where they can edit areas of text, events and so on.

featured website: www.sianjamesmp.co.uk

e-Commerce

Customers can purchase products/services using a credit or debit card. These sites also include content management whereby an administrator can edit and manage products/services from within the website.

featured website: www.dreamtimebeds.co.uk

www.onefunction.co.uk

Bespoke

Web-based application or intranet facility, designed and built to perform a series of functions, for example, restaurant booking system, ordering system or stock management and control tool, integrated with front-end e-commerce website. Onefunction can design and build to your business needs, instead of your business needing to change it's workflow to fit in with an off-the-shelf-software application.

featured websites: leather sofa company and morgans hotel

website hosting & packages

We can offer quality hosting for our clients. Our dedicated servers based on the backbone of the internet allows Onefunction to offer an industry-leading Service Level Agreement with a 99.9% uptime guarantee.

Our standard hosting includes the following services:

Linux Servers: The LINUX platform is widely regarded as highly reliable and a more popular choice among professional and advanced users. LINUX fast, stable and secure.

POP3 Email & WebMail: Pop3 mail accounts, mail forwarding and auto-responders. Powerful webmail is also included, allowing a simple send and receive e-mail from any internet PC.

Storage & Bandwidth: Generous Webspace (files on the server) and 1G3 bandwidth (monthly data transfer from server) per month as standard. We offer flexible rates for increased webspace and storage.

Scripting: Our business hosting supports PHP (and Perl and CGI). PHP is widely-used general-purpose scripting language that is especially suited for Web development.
